UUBO is pleased to inform you that Mary Ekemezie (managing associate) will be a panelist at the Employment Law Alliance's webinar series on employment law topics and global challenges affecting businesses of all sizes.

Titled The Reimagined Workplace, the webinar will hold at 13:00 WAT on 11th August 2020.

Mary will be joined by other legal experts from the Middle East/Africa region to discuss pressing issues in the current employment landscape, such as employers' management of lock-downs, plans for future return to work, terminations, restructuring, and immigration matters.

Specific topics to be covered include:

- cost saving measures during the global economic recession, including management of redundancies and realignment of resources
- health & safety guidelines, including reconfiguration of the physical workspace, if necessary, temporarily or permanently
- legal ramifications of ongoing teleworking and other flexible working arrangements
- the cultural impact of the new workplace
